joy a continuous, hearty laugh should by all means see Saunders. He is a comedian who pleases all. The Dixie Quartet in popular song hits are known as the "harmony lads." Their voices blend beautifully and they receive many encores.

A bevy of pretty singing and dancing girls is carved. They are all pretty and their songs and dances make quite an impression on the patrons of the popular playhouse. There will be a change of program tomorrow afternoon.

Barriers of Prejudice," and an Edison drama "When Conscience Sleeps."

Pathe will release during the week of November 1 and December 13, some very remarkable pictures showing the analysis of motion. These films are the second and third of the kind ever released by any of the film manufacturers. The first of the type, called the "Analysis of Motion," was released by Pathe about two years ago, and at that time secured some very remarkable publicity.

"Fun in a Drug Store," the play now being presented at the Palace theater by Dave Newman's "Tabarin Girls," is meeting with high favor. It is one of the funniest tabloids on the road. Mr. Newman, who is responsible for the lines and music, may have been the cause of success of that which was spoken and the plot itself, but the cast, which is admirably balanced and fitted to the play itself has a finger in the pie. The music is always fresh and catchy, and receives as much intelligent treatment as is needful at the hands, or rather with the hands and feet and voices of a good looking musical comedy chorus. A new bill will be presented tomorrow.

A Lubin drama "By the Pillar of a Coin" with Velma Whitman and L. C. Shumway in the lead; a Mina comedy entitled "A Harmless Filtration," and an Essanay drama "The Little Prospector," featuring G. M. Anderson are the screen offerings today.

Jacques Jacard, former director of J. Warren Kerrigan, has completed the first of what is to become a series of little stories of real life, under the title, "Promissory Notes." Each of the stories will be complete in itself. Peggy Cordray, Ray Russell, Edwin Blake and Fred Aldice appear in the leading roles.

Henry Kolker, the accomplished dramatic actor, whose work in stellar and leading roles in many of the most notable stage successes of recent seasons, among which are "The Great Name," "The Greyhound," "Our Wives" and "Our Children," has earned him the ardent support of thousands of American playgoers, is making his bow from the screen under the auspices of the Metro Pictures Corporation at the Robinson Grand today in "The Bridge" or "The Bigger Man," a picture of the great play by the same name by Rupert Hughes.

"The Bridge" or "The Bigger Man" is the latest production of Rolfe Photo-plays Inc., and was directed by John W. Noble, whose artistic and highly dramatic film creations have already won such high favor with the Metro public. It is an alignment of class against class—which strikes deep at the root of American liberties, that this great five act sociological problem deals.

Wednesday Oliver Morosco will present the star of "The Bird of Paradise," Lenore Ulrich, in a picture of "Kilmeny," a beautiful romantic story of a child of the woods transplanted to the city.

Simple Remedy For Catarrh

Just Breathe Hyomel Four Times a Day and Be Relieved.

If a few years ago some one had said you could treat catarrh by breathing air charged with a healing balsam, the idea would have been ridiculed and it remained for that eminent investigator, R. T. Booth, to discover in Hyomel this wonderful method of treatment.

Hyomel has performed almost miraculous results in treating catarrh and is today recognized by thousands of people as the only advertised remedy for catarrh that can be relied upon to do just what it claims. The complete outfit of Hyomel is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomel.

Breathe the aid of Hyomel through the little inhaler drugless furnishes with it for a few minutes four times a day and it will help the worst case of catarrh. It soothes and heals the mucous membrane of the air passages, prevents irritation, and effects complete lasting relief.

In Clarksburg there are scores of well known people who have been relieved of catarrh by Hyomel. If it does not help you Wells-Haymaker will return the money you paid for Hyomel. This is the strongest evidence that can be offered as to the faith in this remedy.—Advertisement.

The theatrical firm of Cohan and Harris will present "It Pays to Advertise" Friday night at the Robinson Grand.

It would be your misfortune if you miss seeing "It Pays to Advertise." Cohan and Harris' latest farce success for it will give you the laughing conditions of the modern home, and pre-treatment. It also does more, much-

The subject is delicately treated in a play called "The Blindness of Virtue," which will be the opening play of the Leds-Oliver Stock Company, which fills an engagement at the Palace theater beginning next Monday. The play casts a great light upon conditions of the modern home, and pre-treatment. It also does more, muchmore than that; it booms business for the reason that it imparts the best business spirit. Not the narrow, timid, cringing spirit of small business, but the spirit, big, audacious, large-visioned which commands success. Every man who sees this adroitly constructed farce elaves the theater with his shoulders squared, eyes bright with resolve and soul dauntless.

At last we are waking up to the question of sex education and hygiene plans are now being made to against the conditions of permitting children to grow up in ignorance of certain impulses.

The Shuberts have obtained the American rights of a successful London detective play called "The Ware Case."

No more effective aid to the cause of the Audubon Society—the organization whose purpose it is to protect bird life—could be found than in the interesting two reel Thanhouser picture, Introduce this vital subject into the public schools, as it was recommended by Dr. Elliot, quite recently and the time is not far distant when the young people who are approaching maturity will be given healthful instructions in the so-called mystery of sex.

"The Spirit of Audubon." The story of what the great organizer of the Audubon Society, after which it is named, aimed for is shown in pictures of the birds of many countries. It is combined with a human interest plot which brings the application of the teachings of the great man home to everyone who sees it.

Mack's "Musical Review," one of the Greenwood circuit companies, is sojourning in Clarksburg for half a week. It came here from Pittsburgh, where it filled an engagement, and is going to Weston to play an engagement the last half of this week. Thence it will go to Fairmont.

"Youth," a three part Broadway star feature with Mlle. Valkyrie, Frankie Mann, Antonio Morreno and Donald Hall as principals, is the big thing today at the Bijou. It is a romance out of the regular order. The Pathe Daily News shows the first baseball game between the Philadelphia Nationals and the Boston Americans in the world's series. The games will appear on the Bijou screen twice each week until all games played are shown. Ade's table, "The Statesman Who Didn't Make Good," is the big scream of the bill.

Wednesday, Klaw and Erlanger will present "The Worth of a Woman." The title sounds good, and the management recommends this company to put over the best pictures offered.

A beautiful play is in store for the patrons of the Orpheum today when the charming Thanhouser twins, Marion and Madeline Fairbanks, with the support of a large cast appear in the marvelous Mutual masterpiece, "The Flying Twins," in five acts. Then the well known play, "Tempest and Sunshine," will be masterfully played by a clear cast of popular stars.

Tomorrow, that great Broadway star, Wilson Lackaye, supported by a tall star cast of famous players, will appear in the Universal Broadway feature, "The Man of Shame," in six acts. The story is well known, being a masterpiece from the pen of one of the world's greatest writers.

Laurette Taylor is to return to this country in the spring. Incidentally, it is said she has played in "Peg o' My Heart" a thousand times.

The new Potash and Perlmutter play, "Abe and Mawruss," made a hit worthy of its predecessor on its production in New York. The story continues the fortunes of the partners and their temporary separation. The principal roles were taken by Barney Bernard, Julius Tannen, Lee Kohlmar, Madame Cottrell, Louise Dresser, Fred H. Speare and Lee Donnelly.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

With LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick remedy. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tones known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.
